Beautiful Bangladesh

Tourist Attraction Place in Bangladesh & Bangladesh Offers in Brief:

Colorful tribal life & festivities.

A Part from the obvious religious difference, Bangladesh does not differ markedly from the culture found in the Indian state of Bengal (west Bengal). Centuries of isolation, even when foreign powers ruled, have produced people customs values that are typically Bengali in nature. At the heart of things, Bangladeshi are warm, hospitable and exceedingly helpful. If you find yourself in a jam don't be surprised by the Bangladeshi who will go out of their way to help you, as one traveler commented, you are not just a tourist but an honored guest. Many people see it as a duty to assist a visitor to their country. Contemporary social scenes and favourite past times.

Tanguar Haor

Tanguar Haor, located in the Dharmapasha and Tahirpur upazilas of Sunamganj District in Bangladesh, is a unique wetland ecosystem of national importance and has come into international focus. The mauzas covering the Tanguar haor are (1) Jagadishpur, (2) Bhabanipur, (3) Lamagoon, (4) Ramsinapur, (5) Mahajampur, (6) Maindag, (7) Mayajuri, (8) Bhangachara Purba, (9) Noagoon, and (10) Tanguar Haor. The area of Tanguar Haor including 46 villages within the haor is about 100 square kilometres of which 2,802.36 ha² is wetland.

Beauty of hill tracks with some species.

The Hill Tracts have steep jungle hills, Buddhist tribal peoples and relatively low-density population. The tracts are about 60 km (37 mile) covering Rangamati, Bandarban, Khagrachori, etc which situated at the east of Chittagong, and are an idyllic place to tour. The region comprises a mass of hills, ravines and cliffs covered with dense jungle, bamboo, creepers and shrubs, and has four main valleys formed by the Karnapuli, Halda, Shangu and Matamuhuri rivers, making it one of the most scenic tourist destinations in Bangladesh.

The world's largest mangrove forest.

The Sundarbans is one of the world's coastal mangrove forests with diverse wildlife. Tourists come from all over Bangladesh to enjoy the beauty of the Sundarbans. The presence of tourists from different countries of the world is not less either. Most of the Sundarbans tours start from Khulna. However, some tours are starting from Dhaka lately. The advantage of traveling from Dhaka is that you do not have to go to Khulna by bus separately, but you can start your journey by ship from Dhaka. This article will enlighten you about visiting Sundarbans from Dhaka, including things to do in Sundarbans.

Panam City

As the capital of the fifteenth-century Bengal ruler Isa Khan, and once an important trading and political center, Sonargaon boasts architecture of the Sultanate, Mughal, and colonial periods. The Sonargaon historic city, located near the present-day capital of Dhaka, includes several Mughal monuments—among them the Sonakanda River Fort, the Panch Pir Mazar Shrine, and Ibrahim's and Abdul Hamid's Mosque.

A vast gathering of historical relics & temples.

Adinath Temple, Maheshkhali Adinath Temple is situated at the top of the hill of Mainak, 85.3 meters above sea level. Adinath Temple is located at Thakurtala village of Gorakghata Union under Maheshkhali Upazila of Cox's Bazar district. It is basically the temple of Mahadev. There are 69 stairs to rise from the island's land to this temple. The length of The Adinath Temple is 10.50 meters, width of 9.75 meters and a height of 6 meters. The entrance to the temple is arched. Its interior walls are 1.05 meters and the exterior is 0.60 meters.

Back Water

Barisal is the land of rice—rivers—canal, and fish. It is called the island of Bengal or the Venice of Bengal. When hills, tea valleys, and ancient monuments in the other parts of Bangladesh, the backwaters are unique to Barisal. The most beautiful and accessible part of the backwaters is the famous Floating guava market or Floating vegetable markets. This tour starts with a full-day city tour, including Dhaka's new and old parts. After the whole night cruising by modern Ferry, we'll go to the backwater-floating markets.

Vast green tea valley of Srimongal.

Srimongal is the place of tea gardens, hills and forest areas on the hills. It's famous for the largest tea gardens of world covered by lush green carpet. One can have a look into the spectacular tea processing at Tea Research Institute. Bangladesh produces and exports a large quantity of high quality tea every year. Most of the tea estates are in Srimongal. It is called "The land of two leaves and a bud". It is also called camellia, green carpet or Tea Mountain. There are a lot of tea estates including the largest one in the world.

World's largest Buddhist Monastery of Paharpur.

Paharpur Buddhist Monastery, also known as Somapura Mahavihara is one of the most important ancient sites in our country. It was declared as a World Heritage site in 1985. There were monasteries which were built in Pala period in Bengal and in Magadha. Dharampala Vikramasila was the pioneer in building this monastery. He was the king of Varendi Magadha. It is a large square rectangle which is approximately 920 feet. The entrance is from the north side. The outer walls of monastery point towards the sanctuary area which is designed with rows of walls. The total number of cells are 177. The central sanctuary has a solid ground plan which ascends in 3 terraces above ground level to a peak of 70 feet.

The world's largest unbroken sandy beach.

World famous 125 km longest beach is the main attraction in Cox's bazar. About 10000 people including foreign tourist gather here for bathing & amusement daily. Tourist love to hike with the big waves of the sea. It is an excellent place to enjoy sunrise & sunset.
